ST. APOLLONIUS, MARTYR

April 18

Marcus Aurelius was followed in 180 on the imperial throne by his son Commodus, a vicious prince. Yet toward the Christians he was not cruel, and the severity of the laws was relaxed. To the number of those influential persons who joined the ranks of Christians during the reign of Commodus, beginning in 180, belonged to St. Apollonius, a man of importance and learning.

Severus, one of his slaves, accused him of being a Christian, and was put to death in virtue of an obscure law of Marcus Aurelius, who, though enforcing the punishment of convicted Christians, had decreed that their accusers should be put to death. After the execution of the slave, the judge sent an order to St. Apollonius to renounce his religion,. St. Apollonius refused to submit, and was referred to judgment of the Roman Senate.

He then composed an apology for the Christian religion, which he pronounced before that illustrious body. This eloquent discourse was filled with sacred and profane learning and concluded with the words: "We have hastened to honor Him because we have learned lofty commandments from Him . . . Yet if it were a delusion (as you assert) which tells us that the soul is immortal, and that there is a judgment after death and a reward of virtue at the resurrection, and that God is he Judge, we would gladly be carried away by such a lie as that, which has taught us to lead the good lives awaiting the hope of the future even while suffering adversities,."

However, this magnificent discourse fell on deaf ears, and St. Apollonius was condemned by it a decree of the Senate for refusing to abjure his Faith. He was beheaded in the sixth yer of Commodus, about 186.

PRAYER: God of power and mercy, through Your help St. Apollonius has overcome the tortures of his passion. Help us who celebrate his triumph to remain victorious over the wiles of our enemies. Amen

Building Project Prayer

Almighty Father,

We are grateful to you for our existing worship center. We are also grateful and indebted to all the generous people over the years, especially the generation that founded this community some 130 years ago. We are grateful to have the opportunity to continue your work by building our future church for our children and this growing community.

Lord, teach us true generosity that we will be the first to give, for all we have is yours. Help us to give wholeheartedly. Touch our hearts to not be afraid to give, for you take care of our needs and bless us with infinite rewards on earth and in Heaven.

Through the intercession of St. Joseph, the carpenter, and St. Frances of Rome, our patron saint, help us to achieve our dream to build our future church, a space set apart from the mundane, solely dedicated to meet the divine, so that we are drawn to a more contemplative and deeper experience of you.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Oración para el Proyecto de Construcción de la Iglesia

Dios Padre Todopoderoso,

Te damos gracias por nuestra actual parroquia; así como agradecemos a la generosidad de todas las personas, especialmente a la generación que fundó esta comunidad hace más de 130 años y con las cuales nos sentimos en deuda. Estamos muy agradecidos de tener la oportunidad de continuar tu trabajo por medio de la construcción de nuestra futura Iglesia para los niños y la comunidad creciente.

Señor, enséñanos la verdadera generosidad para ser los primeros en dar, pues todo lo que tenemos es tuyo. Ayúdanos a dar con alegría de corazón. Toca nuestros corazones para no temer dar, y, así, tu cuidas de nuestras necesidades y nos bendigas con tus infinitas bondades aquí en la tierra y en el cielo.

Que, a través de la intercesión de San José, el carpintero y nuestra patrona Santa Francisca de Roma, nos ayudes a cumplir nuestro sueño de edificar nuestra futura Iglesia, un espacio apartado de lo mundano dedicado únicamente a conocer tu divinidad, de tal manera que lleguemos a una profunda y contemplativa experiencia de tu presencia.

Todo esto te lo pedimos en el nombre de Cristo Jesús, nuestro Señor. Amen.
